KNOUSE FOODS DECLARES 1ST STOCK DIVIDEND; PLAN EXPANSION

M. E. Knouse, president of Knouse Foods Cooperative, announced today that the company has declared its first semi-annual dividend on its five per cent preferred stock. The board of directors of the company in a recent meeting authorized the dividend.

This dividend payment will go out on Saturday and will cover all preferred stock of record as of December 31, 1949.

Plan Expansion Program
At the same time, Knouse disclosed plans for an expansion program. Among the improvements, he listed large, modern automatic truck scales for both the Peach Glen and Chambersburg plants, an additional production line for packing apple sauce in glass at the Chambersburg plant, additional equipment for cherry processing at the Orrtanna plant which will permit a 60 per cent increase in cherry production.

Also at Orrtanna there will be an addition to the apple production line which will enable a 33 per cent increase in apple production there.

A peach processing line will be installed at Peach Glen. A three million gallon water reservoir will also be built in Peach Glen.

At Chambersburg the company will erect a large, modern cold storage warehouse.

H. S. TEACHER IS SPEAKER AT CLUB DINNER

"Youth and education have made valuable contributions to mankind, but until man learns to understand himself as an individual and learns to live with his fellowman, only then will the world be saved," Miss N. Louise Ramer, guidance counselor at Gettysburg high school, declared in an address given at Tuesday night's dinner meeting of the Sororist club at the Hotel Gettysburg.

"Youth and education are the forces which will save the world today and it is up to the rest of us to see to it that those two forces are developed," Miss Ramer continued. "Education cannot come from schools alone. Three phases enter into complete adjustment for life's work, the home, the church and the school."

Group Cooperation
Miss Ramer said the child should learn first in the home to become a member of a group, with group cooperation, and that it is also the responsibility of every parent to make church a part of a child's life.

3RD CLASS POST OFFICES PUT ON NEW SCHEDULES

In the name of economy and uniformity, third class post offices throughout the county are being notified by postal inspectors to adjust their hours to a schedule prescribed by the Post Office department.

In all instances reported, the new schedule will allow the offices to be open for fewer hours than previously.

Most third-class offices in the county have been open five days a week from 7 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. and in the case of Bendersville that office observed the same hours on Saturday although a number of other third class offices have been closing at noon on that day.

New Schedule Given
The new schedule—which goes in effect April 1 at Bendersville and has been in use since Monday at Aspers—requires that the offices be open Monday through Friday from 7 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. Saturday hours are 7 a. m. to noon. The holiday schedule will be 8 a. m. to 10 a. m.

Postmaster Dyson Kennedy at Bendersville posted notice of the new hours Tuesday after a visit from a postal inspector. Postmaster Robert N. Eisenhart at Aspers placed the new hours in force Monday morning after a visit from the inspector last week. Today the inspector called at Gardners post office.

Inquiries to several second and fourth class offices failed to locate any offices that have yet been notified of any change in hours.

Save On Clerk Hire
In most instances the third class offices have observed the longer hour schedule for many years, staying open through the noon hour for the convenience of their patrons.

The federal inspector said the new hours are being placed in force to make post office hours uniform and to accomplish a saving in operating costs by reducing the cost of clerk hire. Most of the third class offices hire clerical help by the hour with the rate ranging from $1.06 1/2 to $1.24 1/2 per hour. One postmaster said the daily saving for the department probably will be $2 or $4 per day per office.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

The following interesting editorial on "Voluntary Association" appeared in The Washington Star:

"Perhaps the most important fact about American civilization is that it represents the principle of voluntary association. Even in times of great stress men and women commonly are in control of their own lives to a large extent. Unlike the citizens of certain other countries they are free to choose between alternatives. They have liberty of conscience in most matters; they may attend the churches they prefer—or stay away from religious service altogether. In politics they may be radical or conservative as they wish providing only that they do not transgress the rights of their neighbors in the same respect. They rarely, if ever, are fenced in or pushed around. Coercion (Please Turn to Page 2)

PLANS READY ON NEW BARRACKS HERE FOR POLICE

Blueprint drawings for the new substation to be erected on the Fairfield road for the Gettysburg detail of the Pennsylvania state police, received by Sgt. W. Kurt Duhkoff, officer in charge, show a main building 30 by 63 feet, with garage attached to the rear measuring approximately 40 by 50 feet.

Bids for the construction of the building will be opened by the General State Authority, Harrisburg, April 19. The plans were drawn by Buchart Engineering corporation, architects and engineers, York.

The building will be erected just east of the present state highway garage 13 miles from Gettysburg, and between the garage and the Mill road. It will be of brick, limestone and wood trim construction, with slate roof supported on steel framework, according to the plans. It will be placed far enough from the highway to allow for a terraced lawn in front and ornamental flagpole. A concrete walk will lead to a front entrance with four stone steps and an iron railing.

The entrance will lead directly to a complaint room, the plans show, flanked on the west side by a driver's examination room and on the east side by an office. Doors from the complaint room lead to a toilet and shower room in the center and two large bedrooms on either side. The station is designed to provide sleeping accommodations for eight men. The boiler room and storage room are back of the bedrooms, with the large garage, with four doors on both east and west sides, at the rear.

There will be macadam driveways on both sides of the building, according to the plans, leading to the garage and a parking lot in the rear. A door leads from the driver's examination room to the west driveway.

In all instances reported, the new schedule will allow the offices to be open for fewer hours than previously.

MRS. H. T. BREAM IS "FRESH AIR" UNIT CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Henry T. Bream, North Stratton street, has been named chairman of the Adams County "Friendly Town" committee, the New York Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund announced today.

The "Friendly Town" committee arranges for county residents to act as hosts for New York city youngsters for a two-week vacation in the county during the summer.

Mrs. Bream said she has been informed by a Fresh Air fund representative that the youngsters will arrive here July 27, and that the last date for making a request for one of the children is July 13.

22 Here Last Year
Last year countians were host to 22 youngsters, several of whom were back for the second or third year of visit at the home of countians who had requested them.

Mrs. Bream said that those who wish to have the same youngster or youngsters returned to their homes again this year should make their wishes known early so that arrangements can be made to make sure the youngsters arrive here.

Ordinarily requests are made simply for a boy or girl, of a particular age and sometimes a particular religion. From the 10,000 or more children selected for the "Fresh Air" outing, one corresponding to the request is chosen.

From Tenement Districts
Last year 7,100 New York city youngsters were given two-week holidays in private homes throughout the nation and 3,000 were sent to camps under the Fresh Air program. The youngsters are those who reside in tenements in the city and who would not be able to otherwise leave the city during the summer (Please Turn to Page 2)

George E. Weirman Is Buried Tuesday

Funeral services for George E. Weirman, 67, native of Gettysburg, who died Friday at his home in Norristown, Pa., were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Bender funeral home, Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, officiating. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Surgery And New Drugs Fail To Halt Disease; Babe Dies

Wayne Lee Ray, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bay, of 44 South Queen street, Littlestown, who submitted to an unusual emergency operation at the Warner hospital Monday at 11 p. m., died this morning at 7:25 o'clock at the hospital.

The baby was taken to the hospital Monday night suffering from an obstruction of the larynx and nearly expired before reaching the operating room. An operation requiring but two minutes was performed by a hospital surgeon and a silver tube was inserted which immediately relieved the child's breathing.

Death was caused by tracheobronchitis after all new drugs failed to halt the disease which began from an inflammation and caused the closing up of all air passages.

While the operation which permitted the child to breathe was effective for a time, the disease continued to spread below the tube until no further surgical or medical means could be employed to save the child's life.

Surviving are his parents, M. Bernard and Gladys L. Sheely Bay; a brother, Edward Lewis Bay, at home; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sheely, Littlestown; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Bay, Elmo, Mo.; and the following great-grandparents, Howard Sheely, Littlestown R. D.; Mrs. Minnie Park, Kansas City, Miss., and Mrs. John W. Bay, Mountain View, Miss.

Funeral services Saturday morning, meeting at the Little funeral home, Littlestown, at 9:30 o'clock followed by services at St. Aloysius Catholic church at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. George A. Lavelle officiating. Interment in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

MRS. SHEELY TO HEAD SCORORITY; PLAN EGG HUNT

Mrs. Donald C. Sheely, West Middle street, was elected president of the Epsilon Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority Tuesday evening at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. George W. Gilbert, West Middle street.

Mrs. Julius Swope was named vice president; Miss Janet Sixas, recording secretary; Miss Anna Ulrich, corresponding secretary; Miss Esther Geiselman, treasurer; Miss Mary Lou Krenias, Friendly Venture officer, and Miss Eileen Bushman, Women's Civic council representative.

Plans for the annual Easter Egg hunt to be held Saturday afternoon, April 8, at 3 o'clock on the Gettysburg high school grounds were outlined. Two live rabbits will be the principal prizes, the group agreed, with the bunnies to go to the boy and girl securing the most eggs during the hunt. The contest will be divided into three sections, for children of different ages, and prizes will be awarded in each division to the winners. The rabbits will then be given to the top egg collectors, no matter what group.

Joint Initiation
Attendance at the annual Easter area convention to be held in Pittsburgh April 27 and 28 was discussed. Mrs. Sheely, Miss Krenias, Miss Dorothy Shetter and Miss Doris Smith were selected as delegates to the convention.

A joint formal initiation, "The Ritual of the Jewels," will be held Thursday evening at Hotel Washington, Chambersburg, with the Gettysburg, Waynesboro, Shippensburg, Greencastle and Chambersburg chapters participating, according to an announcement at the meeting.

Sixteen members of the local sorority announced plans to attend the (Please Turn to Page 2)

Serve First Subpoenas For Controversial Loyalty Files

Washington, March 29 (P) — Senate officers today served the first of three subpoenas demanding from top government officials the loyalty records which President Truman has declined to turn over to a Senate committee.

Joseph Duke, sergeant-at-arms, served his first subpoena on Harry B. Mitchell, chairman of the Civil Service commission, at the capitol. Mitchell had come to the capitol on business.

Duke had other subpoenas for Secretary of State Acheson and Attorney General McGrath.

The subpoenas demand — under "penalty" — that the officials produce loyalty records by next Tuesday and give them to the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating charges of communist infiltration of the State department.

The penalty is possible citation for contempt of the Senate if the offi-

ZION LUTHERAN PLANS SERVICES

Appropriate services of worship for Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter Sunday are planned at Zion Lutheran church, Fairfield.

The rite of confirmation will be administered at the Palm Sunday worship at 10:30 o'clock and the rite of Holy Baptism for adults, "Our Hosannas to the King" will be the theme of the sermon on Palm Sunday morning. "The Palms" and "The Earth Is the Lord's" will be the special offerings of the choir.

THREE MEMBERS ARE ADDED BY EXCHANGE CLUB

The regular weekly dinner meeting of the Exchange club of Gettysburg was held at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night at Banker's restaurant, with 40 members present.

Glenn Guise, president of the club, presided. It was announced that the club now has 53 members. New members introduced Tuesday night were Glenn Musselman, Jr., florist, Cashtown; Jeff Grot, Gettysburg Building Supply, and Harold Heiges, real estate.

Membership awards in the form of lapel pins were presented to two members, Dr. Robert S. Lefever and Jay W. Bringham.

Hear Judge's Letter
There was no regular speaker, the time being taken with explanations by President Guise of the duties of various committees, under the club's constitution and by-laws.

A copy of a letter sent by Judge W. C. Sheely to Pfc. Joseph Tappe of the York substation of the Pennsylvania state police was read by the president, Pfc. Tappe was a speaker at the high school here recently during the Exchange club's observance of Crime Prevention week. Judge Sheely outlined the case of a juvenile brought before him in connection with the investigation of several thefts. He said the boy heard the state policeman's talk on crime and it had influenced him to "go straight."

Announcement was also made that a new Exchange club was in the process of formation at Frederick, Md. A meeting of the board of control will be held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the office of Dr. Lefever, vice president. The next regular meeting will be held at Banker's restaurant next Tuesday night at 6:30 p. m.

Will Furnish Chapel At Home

With a general invitation issued to all Adams countians who are interested to attend their meeting, the members of the Adams County Home Auxiliary will gather Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the parlor of St. James Lutheran church here. The Rev. Nevin R. Prantz, Arenaville, chairman of the auxiliary, will preside.

The chief items of business for the meeting will be the discussion of means of furnishing a chapel at the home which has been made available by the action of the county commissioners. A room at the county buildings must be furnished and equipped by the auxiliary. Such things as chairs, an altar and songbooks must be secured.

A second purpose of Friday's meeting will be to consider means of enlarging the membership of the Auxiliary.

"We are hoping for wide county representation in our organization," the Rev. Mr. Prantz said. "We wish that every church in the county would have one or more representatives in our organization. It is open to all persons who are interested in improving conditions at the county home and in making life more pleasant for the guests there."

The Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, St. James Lutheran pastor, is secretary of the Auxiliary.

Recover Auto And Pick Up Juvenile

An automobile owned by Norris Zeigler, Waynesboro R. 4, reported stolen from in front of Zeigler's home Tuesday morning, was recovered in Gettysburg Tuesday afternoon, and its operator, a juvenile, was taken to the Franklin county jail at Chambersburg, state police of the Gettysburg substation, who found the car and its driver, reported today.

EXTRA HOURS AT R.C. OFFICE ON FRIDAY EVENING

The Red Cross headquarters on Baltimore street will be kept open Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock for the convenience of canvassers who are expected to make their reports, it was announced today by Richard E. Drees, co-chairman of the current campaign for $12,742.

Mr. Drees and Harry D. Ridinger, co-chairman, are notifying district chairmen to urge solicitors who have completed their work to make their final reports by Friday. The chairman said that in some districts workers will not be able to finish their task by that time and will be allowed a few extra days. It was pointed out that in northern and western sections of the county last week's heavy snows interfered with the work of the rural solicitors.

The total today continued to climb as workers' reports flowed in.

Gettysburg college sororities, fraternities and faculty turned in $426.25 which tops the 1949 total for the same groups. The sororities contributed $22.15; fraternities, $132, and the faculty, $272.10.

The Red Cross received an additional $50 from the Gettysburg Lions club bringing the club's total gift to $75. Gettysburg National park employees gave $10 and the Koolvent Sales donated $50.

One of the pair, George B. McClellan Baker, 30, of New Oxford R. 1, surrendered at Hanover police headquarters shortly before noon Tuesday.

WILL FURNISH CHAPEL AT HOME

The other contract for $1,265, was let to H. L. Joy and Sons, Baltimore, to paint the exterior of the court house. Joy and Sons will place two coats of paint on the exterior of the court house and repair windows that may need repairing

LONDON SESSION SET FOR MAY 8

London, March 29 (AP)—The foreign ministers of the 12 Atlantic Pact nations will meet in London May 8 to chart new Western moves in the cold war and present Russia with a greater, unified strength.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, announcing the date of the meeting last night, said he foresaw a long peace if the Atlantic Alliance grew firmer and the Eastern world could be held as its ally.

"I think the day is not far distant," said Bevin, "when the growth of this power x x x will create a situation where there will be no alternative but to negotiate, to settle once and for all this problem that has cursed the world for so long."

His words were taken to mean he thought the Soviet Union, facing the combined Western strength, would have no alternative but to negotiate with the West on problems dividing the world.

The meeting of the 12 foreign ministers, who make up the Council of the year-old Atlantic Pact, was called by U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, chairman of the Council, at Britain's suggestion.

Along with this meeting Bevin announced that he, Acheson and France's Foreign Minister Robert Schuman would hold a separate Big Three conference.

Lack Clues On Gertrude Nauman

Philadelphia, March 29 (AP)—Police said questioning of Bryn Mawr college students and faculty members failed today to produce a single clue in the disappearance of 19-year-old Gertrude Colston Nauman.

The girl, a junior at the college, vanished last Friday—the day she was expected to return to her home in Harrisburg, Pa., home for a 10-day Easter vacation with her socially prominent parents.

State Police Capt. Carthur Oldham said Miss Nauman's classmates are being questioned in an effort to determine whether the girl decided to change her vacation plans at the last minute.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Gilbert Nauman, of Harrisburg, could offer no explanation of their daughter's disappearance. Nauman's law firm represents the Pennsylvania railroad's middle division.

is not a major factor in their lives.

"Particularly is this true in their practice of fellowship. Voluntary association characterizes their friendships, their activities as members of independent organizations. Literally thousands of societies exist in our country simply because we desire that they should. Some of these are devoted to cultural purposes, some to social, some to philanthropic. In the last of the categories mentioned the American Red Cross may be cited in illustration. It began with the single-handed endeavors of Clara Barton; and today nearly 38 years after her death it carries on in her spirit still emphasizing the personal values of work she launched. Most of the responsibility for its success as the greatest and most efficient charitable instrument in the world traces back to the voluntary association of millions of people who contribute to its maintenance. This unregimented army is drawn together by the ideal of practical cooperation. Nobody commands it—nobody drives it. The only compulsion is the force of individual conscience.

"Of course the Red Cross efficacy definitely depends upon the driving power of the proverbial 'still small voice.' Voluntary association would be a futile thing indeed if it did not function constructively. As a matter of history it is richly productive of results. Perhaps that is because every person instinctively realizes that the appeal of the Red Cross is in truth a test of our elementary character as a free, unenslaved nation—a nation in which liberty and fellowship flourish in practice, not merely in theory."

The Adams County Chapter of the Red Cross is conducting its annual drive for funds. Its success depends entirely upon what you give. If you have not made your contribution it will be appreciated if you do so now. More than $8,000 is needed to reach Adams county's quota.

Philadelphia, March 29 (AP)—A state police officer reported today that Gertrude C. Nauman, missing 19-year-old Bryn Mawr student, cashed checks in a Philadelphia bank the day she disappeared.

C. E. LEISTER, 56, IS FOUND DEAD

Carroll Elmer Leister, 56, Hanover R. 4, who resided on the Hanover Shoe Farms property along the Hanover-Littlestown highway, just west of the Plum Creek bridge at the edge of Fennville, was found dead of a shotgun wound about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the attic of his home.

The discovery was made by his granddaughter, Mildred Anna Leister, who had gone in search of her grandfather. He was last seen shortly after 9 o'clock when he had returned home after making a business call.

Lester J. Sell, York county coroner, who was notified conducted an investigation and gave the cause of death as "a self-inflicted wound of the head caused by the discharge of a 16-gauge single barrel shotgun." He estimated the time of death at between 9 and 9:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Leister, and their daughter were in the house at the time but did not hear the shot. Members of the family could give no apparent reason for his act other than he had been in ill health since last February and had appeared to be in a nervous and depressed condition during the past two weeks. Mr. Leister had been a tenant on the farm for the past four and one-half years.

He was born May 21, 1893, a son of the late Harry and Betty Evers Leister. He is survived by his wife, the former Anna Jane Hafe; two sons, Ralph B. Leister, at home, and Edgar W. Leister, Gettysburg R. 4; one daughter, Mrs. Arlene M. Boyer, Hanover, five grandchildren, and the following brothers: Edgar R. Leister, and George R. Leister, both of Hanover, and Wilbur Leister, Brushtown.

Funeral services Thursday at 2 p. m. at the William A. Feiser funeral home, Hanover. Rev. George E. Sheffer, New Oxford, will officiate assisted by Rev. William E. Yungling, pastor of Grace Evangelical church, Interment in Christ church cemetery, near Littlestown.

SWOYERSVILLE AND STEELERS ARE FAVORITES

Harrisburg, March 29 (AP)—Two once-beaten schoolboy cage teams will attempt to ruin the success stories of the Swoyersville Sailors and the Homestead Steelers tonight.

But the Steelers and the Sailors are favorites to win their regional titles and qualify for the PIAA class A title game Saturday night at the Penn palestra in Philadelphia.

Tonight's action sends Swoyersville against Haverford at the Penn palestra for the eastern diadem. Homestead will battle Westinghouse at the Pitt stadium to settle western honors.

The unbeaten Sailors are given the best chance of making the state finals. No team this season has come even close to stopping the class B school that is reaching for the title of the higher classification.

In winning 28 games, Coach Eddie Chiampì's boys have scored at the rate of slightly more than 70 points per game while limiting their opponents to less than 37.

Haverford puts a 22-1 record on the line against the high-flying stringbeans from Luzerne county. While the Fords have had several close calls, only the non-PIAA Hill school at Pottstown has been able to beat them.

Sailors Tailor

Coach Steve Juenger has a defense-minded group of young players which he describes as "not too fast but a well-knit unit." His two top players, Dick Heylman and Herkey Lamley, each will give several inches in height to the Holup brothers—John and Joe—of Swoyersville. John, a senior forward, stands six-foot-five, while Joe, a sophomore center, is only an inch or so under that mark.

The Fords have won their last two games by one-point decisions. They topped Yeadon, 44-43, for the district 1 title and then nosed out York's defending Eastern champs, 41-40, in a last minute thriller.

Homestead is expected to have more of a scrap on its hands in the western finals against Westinghouse, the Pittsburgh City league winners.

The Steelers have as their chief weapon the court magic of Coach Chick Davies, former head cage mentor at Duquesne university. Davies, who quit the college ranks in 1946 to spend more time with his family, has been able to take a squad of good high school players and turn out a squad that seems to win whenever it must.

Davies has seen his charges win 73 of their last 78 games under his coaching. Last year they were eliminated in the WPIAL finals by Aliquippa, which later won the state title.

Westinghouse is being compared with Pittsburgh's last outstanding team, South High, which won the state title in 1937. Western observers are warning not to sell the Bulldogs short. Their only loss was a two-point decision to Beaver Falls in an early exhibition game. Their team averages over six feet.

The Steelers post a 25-3 against the Bulldogs' 21-1 mark. Homestead won the WPIAL title and then downed Altoona, 50-35, in its only playoff appearance.

Westinghouse, representing District 8, knocked over Bradford, 40-34, and Hickory, 50-36, to qualify for tonight's game.

Meanwhile, Kutztown and Irwin are ready today for Friday night's class B title game at Allentown's Rockne hall.

Wins Catholic Title

Kutztown upset a favored Ashley team, that had lost only to Swoyersville twice, 53-48, to represent the Eastern region. Erwin won its 42nd consecutive victory by downing Mercer, 56-39, in the western finals.

Reading Central won the state title for Class A Catholic schools last night with a 58-41 triumph over defending champion Pittsburgh Central. St. James of Pittsburgh took the PCIAA Class B crown by beating Bethlehem Catholic, 61-55.

Big Advance Sale Of Baseball Ducats

Chicago, March 29 (AP)—A new major league attendance mark may be hoisted this season by the American league, judging from record-breaking advance ticket sales.

President Will Harridge, just back from his annual junket to the Florida spring training grounds, reports that pre-season sales are the greatest in the league's 50-year history. "The Cleveland Indians are heading for $1,000,000 before the season opens," he says. "The Red Sox have about $750,000 in the bank. And Detroit had to stop selling season box seats so game-to-game fans would not be shut out. All clubs are reporting terrific advance sales."

The A.L. set a major league attendance high of 11,150,099 in 1948. Last year the games attracted 10,730,647.

CANCEL MEETING

The special meeting of the Adams County Umpires association which had been announced for this evening has been cancelled, according to announcement by Francis Keffer, president.

Baseball Briefs

Seeks Yankee Berth

Sarasota, Fla., March 29 (AP)—With Johnny Mize and Tommy Henrich hobbled with injuries, Joe Collins is making a determined bid to win himself a first base berth with the New York Yankees.

Collins, who hit .319 with Kansas City of the American Association last season, has been one of the leading hitters in the world champions' camp this spring. The six-foot left-hander garnered half of the Yanks' hits—a single and double—yesterday in their 9-5 loss to the Boston Braves.

Dodgers To Decide

Vero Beach, Fla., March 29 (AP)—Robert Pogue Milliken, a young right-hander with a burning desire to make good, gets his acid test against the Brooklyn Dodgers today against the Philadelphia Athletics. His performance will decide whether he stays with the National League champions, or returns to Port Worth of the Texas league.

Red Sox Meet Yanks

Sarasota, Fla., March 29 (AP)—Manager Joe McCarthy expects to field his regular lineup for the first time this season as the Boston Red Sox meet the world champion New York Yankees today at Payne field in the fourth spring exhibition game between the teams. Johnny Pesky has recovered from pulled leg muscle and will be at third base. The son won two of the previous tilts. Mel Parnell and Joe Dobson will share the pitching chores. Yankee Manager Casey Stengel will pitch veteran Ed Lopat. Stengel has not announced his lineup but all regulars are expected to start.

Indians Like Zoladak

Tucson, Ariz., March 29 (AP)—Sad Sam Zoladak of the Cleveland Indians is going to merit a new nickname if he keeps on pitching like he did yesterday. The once portly southpaw, now a streamlined 175 pounds, limited the New York Giants to two hits in six innings in an exhibition game at Phoenix.

The Tribe came from behind to rack up its third straight victory over the National leaguers, 4-2. Sad Sam had two runs scored against him, but both were unearned. He now has pitched 16 consecutive innings without yielding an earned run.

Umpire In Action

Lakeland, Fla., March 29 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers are working up their dander for the new season.

Manager Red Rolfe was booted off the bench by Umpire Lou Jorda for protesting a decision in yesterday's 12-7 licking from the Cincinnati Reds. Noisy Dick Bartell, a Tiger coach, was grumbling long after the game on another decision.

Phillies' Powerhouse

Clearwater, Fla., March 29 (AP)—Just what kind of powerhouse has Manager Eddie Sawyer of the Philadelphia Phillies assembled for the 1950 National League campaign?

For the second straight day the Phils' hits were good for 31 bases in burying the St. Louis Cardinals, 21-6, yesterday. They had 14 hits against four Cardinal pitchers. On Monday they totaled 31 bases on 17 hits against the Washington Senators.

The Phils power right now is really terrific and Sawyer is hoping they carry it over into the regular campaign. Every man is swinging from the heels with the result that 24 home runs have bounced off Phils' bats this spring.

A's Catcher Battle

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 29 (AP)—The battle for the Philadelphia Athletics No. 1 catching slot can now be considered a three-way affair. Fermin (Mike) Guerra arrived in the A's camp yesterday, came to terms with Manager Connie Mack and lost no time in getting down to work.

Mike—a full month late in reporting—relieved Joe Astroth for the last five innings of the game with Toronto of the International league, singled home one run, scored once and handled his catching duties with mid-season finesse. Astroth and Joe Tipton have been

Barons Need Only One More Victory

(By The Associated Press)

The Cleveland Barons need only one more victory over the Buffalo Bisons to win their best-of-seven post-season series and thus earn a spot in the American Hockey league's championship final playoffs.

The Barons, regular season winners in the Western division, last night took a 3-1 lead over Buffalo, the eastern kings, by capturing the fourth game of the series at Buffalo, 5 to 1.

The winner of this series will clash against the survivor of the Providence-Indianapolis series.

The Barons hope to wind up the series when Buffalo invades Cleveland Saturday night.

Flashes Of Life

Covina, Calif., March 29 (AP)—Kermit Wilson wants to change an old White House tradition. He said he has sent this telegram to Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.):

"Respectfully request you intercede with President and suggest rolling of oranges on White House lawn this Easter instead of eggs. This would be in line with government's recommended crop rotation principles and obviously a fair deal for all. Also, it will help take spotlight off administration's embarrassing egg surplus. X X X"

Wilson is the owner of a 40-acre citrus grove.

Dixon, Ill., March 29 (AP)—Burglars reaped a grim harvest when they looted Harvey L. Basshardt's parked automobile.

They abandoned the stolen articles, appropriately near a Prairieville cemetery. Police identified the loot as 19 burial gowns, suits and blankets, owned by Basshardt, a salesman for a Ft. Wayne, Ind., funeral supplies firm.

Rockland, Me., March 29 (AP)—Firemen think nothing of rescuing cats from trees—but a seagull tangled in kite string and telephone wires is something new.

The gull collided with a runaway kite yesterday. The string put one wing out of commission. Bird and kite crashed into the wires.

Rockland's aerial ladder crew got the kite and gull off the wire. After the firemen unwound "about a mile" of kite string, the bird flew away.

Pasadena, Calif., March 29 (AP)—Traffic Officer Dan Sheridan was walking past emergency hospital yesterday when an ambulance screamed up to the entrance. An attendant told Sheridan a baby had been hurt at a certain address.

"That's my boy!" Sheridan exclaimed. He rushed inside and found his 11-month-old son, Michael, on an operating table—dead.

Mrs. Sheridan said she had left the boy alone in his high chair for a moment. When she returned he was hanging by his neck, his head caught by the food tray.

Workout For MacDonald

Tucson, Ariz., March 29 (AP)—Young Bill MacDonald, the Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher who celebrated his 21st birthday yesterday, gets the starting job against the Cleveland Indians in the Bucs exhibition baseball game today.

Pirate fans who keep worrying about the absence of Ralph Kiner and his home run slugging can take it easy. Bucs officials say Kiner is available to play if necessary, but they don't want him to take any chances of reinjuring that right wrist by getting back into action too soon.

The Bucs left their San Bernardino training camp yesterday for the homeward trek.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 29 (AP)—The cancellation of the Charles-Beshore fight is ample proof of the wisdom of the intricate new system of physical examinations required by the New York State Athletic commission. A bruised heart muscle wouldn't show up in the ordinary examination and chances are that Ez could fight tonight and lick Beshore without suffering any visible damage. But there might be one chance wallop to the danger spot and years from now, when Charles has passed his peak, the injury would be revealed.

Leo Durocher laughs off the Giants' slugging in Oakland, Calif., with "they use the liveliest balls in the business in that league." It only proves you can't convince a ball player with a little thing like legislation requiring a standardized ball in all minor leagues.

Basketball
New York—City College of New York completed a basketball "grand slam" by defeating Bradley, 71-68, for the NCAA championship.

New York—Forrest C. (Phog) Allen was named "basketball's man of the year" by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Racing

Laurel, Md.—Sandlot ($49.60) won the Mt. Vernon purse by two lengths. San Bruno, Calif.—The Gike ($38.80) won Tanforan's Mill Valley purse, giving Jockey Gordon Glisson a triple.

Boxing

Cleveland—Middleweight Champion Jake LaMotta stopped Chuck Hunter, Cleveland, in 59 seconds of the sixth round in their non-title fight.

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Villanova, ineligible for the basketball tournaments this spring because of its sanitary code stand, loses the first nine men from the squad before next season. Still the Wildcats plan to hook up with Penn in 16 doubleheaders at the palestra with a "good country team" of freshmen as nucleus of the new squad.

Tony Janiro, who fights Rocky Graziano Friday, was born in Springfield, Pa., Joe Page's home town. Must have been there that he acquired some of Joe's ideas about training.

END OF THE LINE

Bill Daddio, Allegheny college football coach, is coaching a golf team there this spring to tune up for his summer work as golf pro at nearby Conneaut Lake, Pa.

Butcher Conrad Marrero, who is expected to stick with Washington this season, can't speak a word of English. So—he won't understand what the fans are saying about his team.

Albany, N. Y., March 29 (AP)—Siena and Loras of Dubuque, Iowa, will meet in the semi-finals of the National Catholic Intercollegiate basketball tournament. They scored first-round victories last night as the second annual tourney got underway.

Siena, steered by the 25-point performance of Ed Lange, swamped Providence college, 86-49. Loras edged St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., 59-58, in the opener.

Detroit, March 29 (AP)—Star Wingman Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings was believed out of danger today after undergoing early morning brain surgery to relieve an injury suffered in a Stanley cup hockey playoff game here last night.

The injury to Howe overshadowed the initial game in the semi-final round of the Stanley cup championship, generally known as hockey's world series. The Toronto Maple Leafs won 5-0 in a one-sided contest launching a best-of-seven series.

Johnstown, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Bus and trolley workers voted 163-16 to give their union power to call a strike against the Johnstown Traction company.

The employees, members of Division 1279 of the Amalgamated Street and Electrical Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, voted last night. Union officials said they will ask the company either to resume negotiations in good faith or arbitrate the points in dispute.

CCNY IS FIRST QUINT TO WIN DOUBLE CROWN

New York, March 29 (AP)—Alleghero!

CCNY did it!

The Beavers from City College of New York beat Bradley last night to become the first team to make college basketball's grand slam—winning both the National Invitation tournament championship and the NCAA championship in the same year.

CCNY, variously dubbed "the Cinderella team" and "the team of destiny" completed its sweep of the nation's toughest teams by taking Bradley, 71-68, to replace Kentucky as the NCAA champion. A week ago Saturday the Beavers smacked Bradley, 69-61, to win the N. I. T. title.

Whereas in their first meeting CCNY came from behind in the second half and gradually drew away, Bradley almost pulled the game out of the fire in the last 20 seconds last night.

Five seconds later the Beavers made a wild pass out of bounds, giving Bradley possession and a golden opportunity to turn defeat into victory.

Gene Melchiorre, who had intercepted CCNY passes and scored three consecutive baskets in the last two minutes, drove in for another shot.

But three taller CCNY players partially blocked his shot and recovered the ball. Floyd Layne fired the length of the floor to Norm Mager for an easy layup that sewed up victory for the Beavers. There were exactly seven seconds left. Bradley did not get another shot.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Couple Weds Saturday:
Miss Esta Lillian Slaybaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Slaybaugh, Biglerville, and John Ray Fidler, son of Emmanuel Fidler, Biglerville, were married by Rev. T. C. Hesson, pastor of the Arendtville Reformed church, at the parsonage, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Roth.

Mr. Fidler is employed by the Rice Produce company, Biglerville. The bride has been a teacher in the Biglerville high school for the last six years.

Couple is Wedded: Ralph A. Cline and Miss Clara O. Naugle, of Gardeners, were united in marriage Thursday evening at the United Brethren parsonage by the Rev. Mr. F. L. Stine, pastor. The couple will reside at Mt. Tabor.

Couple Wedded at Mt. Joy Parsonage: Miss Pauline V. Kump, Emmitsburg, and Harvey Edgar Wantz, Harney, were married Thursday evening at the Mt. Joy Lutheran parsonage, by the Rev. L. K. Young. The couple was attended by Howard Kump and Miss Laura Fream. Mr. and Mrs. Wantz will reside at Harney.

Chart Opens for Odd Fellows: Catchy tunes, ticklish humor, consistent plot, sprightly choruses, elaborate costumes.

All these are combined in "Smiles of 1925," the home talent production of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The chart for the production opened Saturday morning at the Keet Drug store. The performance will be presented at the Lincoln Way theater Thursday evening, April 2.

In the cast is the "pick" of local talent, most of which has been seen in previous home talent performances. They are: Miss Annetta Miller, Miss Anna Sefton, Jarvis Robinson, Winbert B. Neely, Alfred Gilbert, Miss Ellen Tipton, Fred Pfeiffer, Murray Miller, Miss Dorothy Crouse, Miss Mildred Myers and Elizabeth Stallsmith.

Peach Glen is Purchased: One of the most important real estate and business transactions in Adams county in the present season has been consummated, with the transfer of the canning factory, packing houses and warehouses of W. S. Adams, Peach Glen, to a firm consisting of M. E. Krouse, Brysonia, and A. N. Fohl, Gardeners.

When operating at full time, the new concern hopes to employ 125 men and women in its canning and packing factories.

John C. Lower Company Begins Moving: The John C. Lower Company, wholesale grocers of Gettysburg, began moving in Thursday from their offices and warehouses on Railroad street to one of the Gettysburg Ice and Storage buildings on Franklin street, it was announced by William A. Miller, manager. The moving will be completed by April 1.

Gettysburg Girl Enters Convent: Miss Eleanor Catherine King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William King, East Middle street, entered Mercy convent, Harrisburg, on Wednesday as a novitiate of that order.

Miss King, who graduated from St. Francis Xavier parochial school in 1917, has been employed as bookkeeper at the People's Drug store, for the past six years.

Musical Comedy Well Received: Brue chapel was packed to capacity Friday evening for the first of two showings of "The Only Girl," Victor Herbert's most successful musical comedy. Miss Lucille Henry and Dr. Richard A. Arms, who directed the musical comedy, are deserving of considerable credit for their efforts in presenting such a high standard of entertainment.

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
BUDS AND BIRDS

The greatest thrill of the year to me, in the outer world, is the advent of springtime, when the buds begin to break and the birds begin to nest and to breed. I look from my library window and watch each tree and shrub, for those breaking buds; and watch for the return of each friendly bird, so long vacationing in the southland.

What magic there is in this miraculous springtime! A regular cantata of renewed joy, song, color and celebration. And what wisdom there is in it all, if we will but extract its essence of mental and spiritual nourishment. No other season of the year is so revealing as our springtime. In no other season are God's movements so evident.

The greys of winter recede and the greens of springtime appear. The crusted earth awakes, and moistened by rains and snow, is warmed by the sun. Then it is that the tiny slumbers in the soil start their stir, finally creeping into the light and into fragrant bloom, while above them buds of leaves unfurl, and the earth again is canopied with its glorious green.

The child asks Whitman: "What is the grass?" His reply: "I do not know what it is any more than he." And then, after thought, he remarks: "I guess it is the handkerchief of the Lord. All nature, I may add, is but his completed raiment!" But now the birds. What a gift to the joy of all mankind. Like a heavenly orchestra is their music at dawn! We are born so akin to these birds of ours. The echo of every call becomes familiar, and their songs seep into our heart. Without their friendly songs and brave existence, life would lose so much of its hope and charm.

Nothing is so fascinating as a study of bird life. From earliest youth, birds have intrigued me. Great men have devoted their lives to birds. Men like Hudson, Audubon, John Burroughs, Jack Miner, have left undying books about birds; and writers such as Peattie, Halle, Edwin Way Teale and John Kieran, have written books that are treasures of bird lore.

One of the best of recent bird books is that one by John Kieran, his "Introduction To Birds," a beautiful written and illustrated volume of a hundred of our more familiar birds. It ought to be a textbook in all our schools!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Assets."

Start Probe Of Steinhardt Tragedy

Ramsayville, Ont., March 29 (AP)—The U. S. Air Force's top safety officer began an investigation today into the explosion and crash of the U. S. embassy plane in which American Ambassador Laurence A. Steinhardt and four others were killed yesterday.

Maj. Gen. Victor E. Bertrandias, director of flying safety for the Air Force, took a leading role in the inquiry started by Canadian police and Royal Canadian Air Force officers shortly after the tragedy.

The chief witness is the sole survivor of the crash, M/Sgt. Gwynne A. Long, of Vannoy, N. C., who parachuted from the flaming plane just before it blew up and plowed into a snow-covered field near here.

Suffering from shock and leg injuries, Sgt. Long told investigators last night that all aboard the plane strapped on parachutes after the right engine caught fire, but that the other passengers "got panicky and would not bail out." Newsmen have not been permitted to question him at the hospital where he is confined.

Still Far Apart In Chrysler Talks

Detroit, March 29 (AP)—After 64 days of a strike that has seen settlement hopes rise up and down, Chrysler Corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers were apparently still far apart today.

Negotiations were continuing in the stubborn dispute as 140,000 workers remained idle.

The union announced yesterday that it was going back to its original demand of 10 cents an hour—six cents for pensions and four cents for health and welfare benefits.

This came after Chrysler defended its $30,000,000 pension fund proposal, an offer the UAW had denounced as unsound.

Meanwhile the strike's cost in public welfare to the city of Detroit advanced toward $1,000,000.

GOP Economy Move Wins Strength Test

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Republicans clamoring for deep slashes in government spending today pressed an advantage won in a $250,000,000 cut in the 1951 foreign economic aid program.

Republican economy strength won its first real test yesterday when the House tentatively lopped a quarter billion dollars from European recovery funds. The vote was 165 to 163.

This reduced the administration's Marshall plan program for western Europe from $2,950,000,000 to $2,700,000,000 in new authorizations.

Still to come under fire were aid to Korea and China, and requests for funds to launch President Truman's "point four" program to technical assistance to undeveloped areas of the world.

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—Harry Boyer, head of the state CIO, says the state Republican administration has "little concern" for the welfare of workers in Pennsylvania.

Boyer made the opening address of the CIO Pennsylvania industrial union council's 13th annual convention. The convalesce moves into its second day today with an address by President Philip Murray of the

Many Will Take Part In Festival

Many of the students of the Upper Adams joint high school will represent their school at the Adams County Music Festival to be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Eddie Plank gymnasium at Gettysburg college.

Twenty-five members of the high school's senior chorus will take part in the festival. They are: Doris Coulson, Ruth Fetters, Christine Heller, Joan Coble, Margaret Orner, Laura Ankney, Joyce Arnold, Teresa Park, Dorothy Longenecker, Ruth Longenecker, Lida Smith, Linda Kookan, Shirley Bittinger, Ronald Alwine, Owen Taylor, Jack Hoffman, Tom Ziegler, Dale Kanagy, Richard Cline, Fred Garretson, Dale Hoffman, Clark Heller, Donald Hollabaugh, Harold Hollabaugh and Louis Kookan.

Biglerville band members participating in the festival will be: Ronald Alwine and Gary Beidler, bass horn; Eddie Myers, baritone; Janet Rex, Tom Ziegler and Joyce Heckenluber, saxophones; Pat Martin, Bert Frederick, Joan Coble, Kathryn Rice, Judy Horick, Betty Hall and Janet Reinecker, clarinets; Dale Hoffman, Jack Hoffman, Donald Myers and Dorothy Longenecker, trumpets; Dale Kanagy and David Frazier, trombones; Ann Luckenbaugh and Clara Lou Hildebrand, flutes; Owen Taylor, Barbara Yoder and Jane Longenecker, drums; and Doris Coulson, bells.

explained Mr. Knouse, "is being planned and put into operation to increase the efficiency of the plants. The ultimate goal of course," continued Mr. Knouse, "is to enable growers to deliver a maximum quantity of bushels of fruit daily as easily and economically as possible."

Mr. Knouse further stated: "In a cooperative organization, the company does not retain earnings as profits to finance expansion programs, therefore the board of directors has authorized the sale of $300,000 of five per cent preferred stock." Knouse added: "The board also voted to reopen the charter and receive additional grower-members. This charter was closed last fall when production facilities then available could accommodate only the present grower membership. Now, due to this expansion program, the charter is reopened and new members may join on the same basis as the original members."

PA. DEMOCRATS TO MAP POLICY

Harrisburg, March 29 (AP)—The Democratic state policy meeting will outline plans for the forthcoming primary election campaign at a dinner meeting here tonight.

The occasion also will mark the first meeting of the party's primary election candidates with the 13-member policy committee.

A spokesman for the committee said the meeting will serve as an "informal get-acquainted session with candidates along with some discussion of campaign strategy."

All of the party's primary election candidates are expected to attend the meeting. They include: U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers for re-election; Richard Dilworth, of Philadelphia, for governor; Judge Michael A. Musmanno, of Allegheny county, lieutenant governor; Senator Frank W. Ruth, of Berks county, for secretary of internal affairs; Judge Michael J. Eagen, of Lackawanna county, for Supreme court, and Judge Roy I. Carson, of Washington county, for Superior court.

TRANSPLANTING TOMATO PLANTS BY MILLIONS

Employees of the C. H. Musselman company at Biglerville today were engaged in transplanting several million tiny tomato plants to the flats where they will grow to the size where they can be handed over to local growers of tomatoes.

Seeds for two varieties, Early Canners and Rutgers, were planted a month ago, and as they reach the size for transplanting they are being moved to the flats from the prepared earth in the green-house where they began their life.

Ready About May 10
Officials of the Musselman company said that the plants will be ready for the growers about May 10. The Early Canners mature early and come on with a rush for about 10 days. They are suited for sandy soil and mountain location. However the majority of the Musselman company growers have soil adopted to the Rutgers, which matures later and produces over a longer period. Tomatoes from the plants will be coming back to the C. H. Musselman company processing plant at Biglerville from about the first or second week of August to about the first week of October, with the peak of the season expected over Labor Day.

Circus Elephant Is Executed At Dawn

Sarasota, Fla., March 29 (AP)—Dolly, the circus elephant, was executed at dawn today.

The animal was put to death with cyanide for killing five-year-old Edward Schooley who was feeding her peanuts last Sunday.

Why the old weary-looking animal suddenly grabbed the child with her trunk and stepped on his head was a mystery.

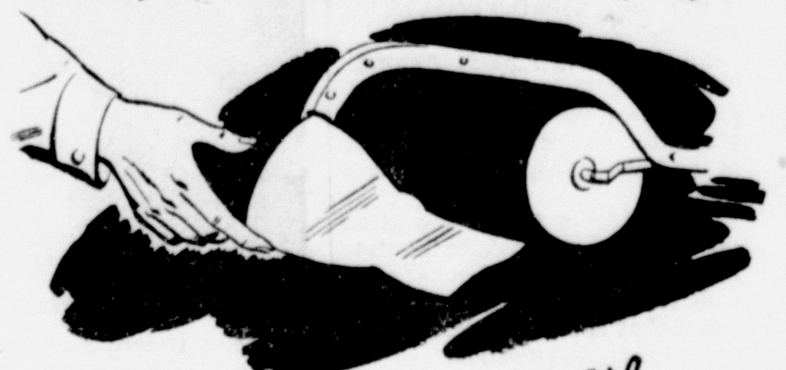

The decision was made at the last minute. John Ringling North, circus vice president, had said a few hours earlier a "deluge" of protests by telephone, telegram and letter had been received at winter quarters here and left officials still undecided about carrying out the execution originally scheduled for 10 a. m.

Only a bare announcement was made here by North after the death. He said the elephant had been taken to a pit, given the cyanide at 5 a. m. and buried after she had crumbled in death.

Harrisburg, March 29 (AP)—Some 5,000 hemlock tree seedlings will be planted by the Valley Forge council of the Boy Scouts of America in Valley Forge park on April 1. The hemlock is the official Pennsylvania state tree and was adopted by an act of legislature on June 22, 1931. More than 100 Scouts are expected to be on hand at the tree planting activities on Mount Joy and Mount Misery in the park. The seedlings are from the Mount Alto State forest tree nursery.

Meadville, Pa., March 29 (AP)—Floods swept into low-lying homes and Union City were among those in a half dozen northwestern Pennsylvania communities today. Meadville, Warren, Cambridge Springs and Union City were among those hardest hit. There is little property damage, however.

Dy-Namic Wheel Balancer

Wheels out of balance don't roll smoothly down the road—giving you easy riding and easy steering. INSTEAD, they hop, pound and swing from side to side on every revolution.

A wheel only one ounce out of balance at the rim develops a 12-pound vibrating force at 60 miles an hour. Think what this means to your tires and the sensitive front end parts. The pounding and swinging knocks valuable rubber from your tires just as if you were chopping it off with an axe. The tremendous vibration puts such a strain on the front end parts of your car or truck that they wear out.

Your tires are valuable, you can't afford to risk wasteful and unnecessary tire wear. Come in for a wheel balance inspection before it is too late.

Crime Fest Lead To Series Of Arrests By FBI Agents

Washington, March 29 (AP) — A crook crooked some crooks who had already been crooked and the Secret Service caught up with a batch of crooked money.

This is a story told by U. E. Baughman, chief of the U. S. Secret Service, to a Senate Appropriation subcommittee. It was made public today.

"Recently we arrested some Mexicans," Baughman said. "They had come up from Mexico to Chicago. They sold marijuana and got paid off in counterfeit notes and went back to Texas."

"The Mexicans picked up a hitchhiker."

The hitchhiker saw this bag in the back of his car. He thought it was a shaving kit. He wanted to take a shave. He reached in and saw all this money, which turned out to be counterfeit.

The hitchhiker, after helping himself, "went out passing these $10 bills, thinking it was good money," Baughman said. "He went out and bought a new suit and things, and he got picked up. As a result of that, we caught these Mexicans."

Baughman said there had been a steady increase in the past three years in counterfeiting. He said losses to the public on fake bills discovered by the Secret Service amounted to $145,000 in 1948, $338,000 in 1949 and $472,474 for the first seven months of the current fiscal year, ending next June 30.

Baughman said counterfeiting "seems to be concentrated in the middle west and the Chicago area, and New York, as far as the makers are concerned," but "it's going on all over the United States."

Letter to the Editor

Box 161
Vandergrift, Pa.

Dear Sir:

We enjoyed very much the recent items about 50 years ago. The pictures could have been clearer.

I'm wondering why you didn't mention the Milliners—Miss Sara (Sade) Horner in the McCullough building, Chambersburg street. The First National Bank building covers the spot.

Then Miss Agnes (Aggie) Barr on Baltimore street on the alley across from the Liquor store and across the street was George Stock's cigar store.

Mrs. W. H. Wireman used to be down beside the Racket Store on York street. Then they built the brick building on Baltimore street and her store was there.

After Miss Barr's death Annie Hollabaugh "kept" her store until her death. Miss Emma Kuhn had a Millinery store in the second square of Chambersburg street.

So give the poor milliners a break—I take the paper chiefly for the "ago" items.

Sincerely,
Ruth Hamilton Keppel.

Young Bank Teller Jailed In Fraud

Scranton, Pa., March 29 (AP)—A 25-year-old bank teller was held in Lackawanna county jail in default of $10,000 bail today on charges of misappropriating $40,000.

Arthur Cornelius, Jr., chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Philadelphia area, announced the arrest of Robert Richardson, Scranton, last night on charges of violating the Federal Reserve Act. Cornelius said Richardson misappropriated the funds from the Third National Bank and Trust Co. Richardson denied the charges at a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Harry A. Kolb. Kolb ordered the young bank teller committed to jail when he was unable to raise the $10,000 bond. Cornelius said Bernard Schiowitz, 41, former professional boxer who fought under the name of Sixty Swartz, was implicated in the fraud.

CHURCHILL SAYS ACTIVE GERMANY IS "ESSENTIAL"

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill livened a debate in the House of Commons yesterday by reiterating his controversial thesis that the "active aid of Western Germany" is essential to the defense of Europe.

"I see no reason why the Germans should not aid in the defense of their own country and of Western Europe," declared Churchill. "There can be no hope of a United Europe without Germany and there is no hope for Germany except within a free and united Europe."

Of course that is strong mustard for most Europeans, who twice in a generation have seen the Reich flinging its mighty armies into a war of wholesale conquest. The world swore after the first upheaval that never again would Germany be permitted to commit another aggression like that. Once more in '45 the world took a mighty oath to hamstring the Reich for good.

Safe, Reasonable Control
Small wonder that Churchill should encounter challenges to his viewpoint. Yet the Old Maestro, who has been right so many times on great issues, is stating a view widely held by objective observers.

Churchill's idea in no way challenges the general determination to prevent Germany from launching further aggression. It would be a crime to let her get out of hand again. But that can be achieved by Allied military safeguards—the maintenance of a safe but reasonable control over a long period. Having provided this control, Germany must be made a part of the European community of nations, if the continent is to regain its vigor.

You can keep a nation quiet by force, but you can't make it think right by force. Moral and spiritual rehabilitation can come only through collaboration with right-minded neighbors. And in this instance the neighbors—the victors in the great war—must initiate the freedom.

Appropos of this, Churchill—long-time advocate of a United Europe—told Commons that Britain and France could combine and bring Germany to equal rank and "lasting association with them."

Of course fruition of this idea is being retarded by the present separation of Germany into two parts—one controlled by Red Russia and the other by the three Western Allies. How long that division will last is on the knees of the gods.

While the three Western allies have consolidated, Russia is straining every nerve to communize Eastern Germany and also is reaching into the Western zones.

Meantime Western Germany can be groomed for that "lasting association" with Britain and France of which Churchill speaks, and for a place in a united Europe.

Manila, March 29 (AP) — Communist-led Hukbalahaps in daring raids on four nearby towns today killed six persons, wounded 11 and kidnapped 13.

The raids were made on the eighth anniversary of the group's founding as an anti-Japanese guerrilla movement.

Melting snow filled many of Pennsylvania's streams to overflowing today but the state's Emergency Disaster committee said there was no cause for alarm from rising waters.

A three-foot flood was forecast for the north branch of the Susquehanna river at Towanda and Wilkes-Barre. That would inundate only lowlands along the bank and cause little damage.

The Susquehanna rose along both north and west branches but was expected to keep within its banks with the exception of Wilkes-Barre and Towanda.

the school, Miss Ramer said: "A generation ago a child's intellect was developed, but now there must be a program to include the social, personal and physical growth. It was for that reason that guidance programs were introduced in school life."

She stressed the need for additional school buildings in Gettysburg "so that the program of activities, to suit many types of individuals, may be enlarged."

The speaker told of the questionnaires given to new pupils in the high school, which are followed by personal interviews. These questionnaires have "saved" many youngsters, she said, since greater understanding of the student's problems result in more efficient assistance. Sophomores, she added, receive a vocational "inventory" which gives them an idea of the type of occupation they prefer. Juniors receive achievement tests.

Last year, according to the speaker, eight girl graduates were placed in business professions in Gettysburg. "There is no place, other than Gettysburg high school, where a prospective employer can obtain a complete record of a student," she said.

Miss Ramer was introduced by Mrs. D. Fred Siegal, McKnightstown, chairman of the dinner committee, who was toastmaster. Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig, president, presided at the initiation of six new members: Miss Lois Benson, Mrs. George W. Bochner, Mrs. Sizer Burton, Miss Alma Cluck, Miss Louise Frazier and Mrs. Edwin Shoop. Sr. Mrs. Hennig was assisted by Mrs. H. Wilbur Baker, who also gave the invocation.

Mrs. Hennig announced that the annual birthday dinner of the Hancock club would be held Thursday evening, April 27. Members of the Gettysburg club are invited to attend.

Group singing was led by Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, with Mrs. Milo A. Galtinger at the piano.

Assisting Mrs. Siegal on the dinner committee were Mrs. Irving Bierer, Miss Esther V. Hartman and Mrs. Baker. A special meeting of the board of directors was held following the dinner program.

A message on our 30th Anniversary

Today marks the 30th Anniversary of the opening for operation of what is now THE GETTYSBURG THROWING COMPANY, a silk and rayon products processing plant. The factory was opened in 1920 as The Eagle Silk Mill, and continued under the Eagle management until 1938 when the Gettysburg company was organized. It is with justifiable pride that we take this opportunity to thank the citizens of this community for their loyal support of Gettysburg Throwing Co. and our employees for their efficiency and willingness to advance with us in the direction that leads to a goal of prosperity for all.

EXPECT TOLL BRIDGES FREE IN EIGHT YEARS

Harrisburg, March 29 (P)—The commonwealth today revised downward to eight years its estimate on how long it will take before its newly acquired toll bridges are free to the public.

Previous estimates ran from 10 to 12 years. But Ray F. Smock, state highways secretary, said toll revenues are now running at the rate of nearly $3,500 a day.

That's on the basis of eight spans already in the state's possession. The remaining two of the last 10 privately owned toll bridges in the state will be taken over within the next few months.

Spent 6 1/2 Millions
The state spent $6,474,675 to acquire these bridges in the past few months under a 1949 law: Market street, Harrisburg; Charlestown-Mo-nessen; Minsi Trail and New Street, Bethlehem; Allentown; Clark's Ferry; Sunbury; Ellwood City-Koppel and Point Marion.

The Point Marion bridge will actually become state property April 28 under a recently signed agreement. The Walnut street span in Harrisburg is due to come into the fold next summer at a cost of less than $1,000,000.

Purchase of the second Harrisburg bridge would mean the department will have come well under the $10,000,000 bond issue authorized by the 1949 Legislature and about a half million dollars less than the $8,500,000 in bonds which were actually floated.

Market Street Span Best
The biggest money maker among all the spans, said Smock, is the Market street bridge in Harrisburg. At the present daily revenue rate of $2,000, he said, the span will pay for itself in about 4 1/2 years.

The money, however, is going into a common fund for all of the spans under the 1949 law. The toll bridge fund liquidates the 12-year bond issue as payments become due.

"For that reason," Smock explained, "none of the bridges will be freed until all of the bonds are paid off. That's the way the Legislature set it up."

There is an alternative. If the 1951 Legislature approves a constitutional amendment started by the 1949 Legislature, it would mean the voters would have an opportunity to decide whether gasoline taxes and motor license fees can be used to pay off the bonds outright. Under that plan, the bridges could be freed by early 1952.

A whale would drown quickly if deprived of air.

LINCOLN SQUARE

With due regard for Lincoln As for Freedom, we enlist. It's the same old proposition Does that country still exist.

If it don't there is a reason We can tell the reason why. If that work remains unfinished Will be blamed on you and I.

It's because we are the people We must know what it is worth. If we wish that this free country Shall not perish from the earth.

Here's the work that we must finish Are the words that Lincoln said. We must have increased devotion Taken from those honored dead.

All men are created equal, These words we can't deny. But to prove this proposition Like the brave men we must die.

We will fight for independence And for Liberty we'll work. And to prove our great devotion, Like the brave, we will not shrink.

It is still a proposition There's a job that we must do. To prove that we are equal It is up to me and you.

With that thought of dedication In that nation so conceived, We must work with consecration That our thoughts may be relieved.

The brave men that are living And the brave men that are dead Started something we must finish. Are the words that Lincoln said.

In memory of those honored dead With that increased devotion, We'll give it to the brave men gave Full measure of devotion.

With the greatest praise for Lincoln Gettysburg will give her share. So we'll build a Lincoln statue And we'll call it Lincoln Square.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN CAMPING THIS SUMMER

Kits for schoolmates overseas have been planned as a fall project by several of the Littlestown Girl Scout troops. It was stated at the monthly meeting of the troop committee and leaders, held Monday evening in the Alpha Fire hall. These kits are made and filled by the troop members for children in 28 countries where ordinary school supplies like pencils, crayons and paper are scarce.

It was decided at this meeting to have the Littlestown Girl Scouts participate in the Memorial Day parade.

A report on day camping was presented by Mrs. Carroll E. Arter. She said that the camp will be held in St. John's Grove this year. The date and fee will be announced later.

Establish Waiting List

Building Ideas For Home Owners Of This Community

Rooms Five
Bedrooms Two
Closets Three
Cubage 18,800
Dimensions 38' x 29'

Five rooms, planned for gracious living, are included in "The Putnam," introduced today by the Home of the Week Plan Service.

Many windows throughout the house provides an abundance of air and sunshine, while all doors and windows are located so as to give the maximum ventilation.

There is ample wall space for arrangement of large furniture pieces in every room. Both bedrooms are located at the back of the house away from street noises, and contain extra large closets.

With its fireplace and bay windows the 20'x12' living room is one of the most attractive features in the house. Off this room is the dining or sun room which contains six windows. Two bedrooms, a bath and a combination kitchen breakfast nook complete the house. The porch at the right can be converted into an additional sitting room in the summer.

Vital Measurements

Measuring 38'x29', "The Putnam" has a cubic footage of 18,800 feet. A 60-foot lot would be required.

White clapboards give a neat look to the exterior of the house, while the four-way pitch of the roof adds to the over-all appearance. If preferred, shingles, brick or other masonry can be used for the side wall covering. A breezeway and attached garage can easily be added at the kitchen rear entry.

The bay, made by the windows in the center of the house, takes "The Putnam" out of the ordinary classification as do the triple windows of the sun room and the set-back porch. The trellises of the porch serve both a useful and decorative purpose for they will conceal screen joinings if screens are installed for the summer and can likewise be used for climbing flowers.

Easy To Repair

This attractive one-story house will have additional appeal for the home-owner who likes to take care of his own repairs—easily and without the use of long ladders the man-of-the-house will be able to do many paint and minor repair jobs.

The living room opens off the porch. To the right is a roomy coat closet and on the opposite wall is the archway to the 12'x8' dining-sun room.

In the middle of the back inside wall is the large, handsome fireplace. There is a solid wall on the left and a door to the L-shaped hall at the right.

In the hall, near the living room, is a linen closet. The door to the master bedroom is on the right, at the turn of the hall which serves the balance of the house and ends at the kitchen-breakfast nook at the other end of "The Putnam." The second bedroom and bathroom are located off this hallway at the back of the house with the door to the cellar stairs in the hall, next to the kitchen door.

Huge Bedroom Closet

Measuring 16'x11' the master bedroom has two sets of double casement windows that provide an abundance of light and ventilation. A huge closet is located in the front inside wall, while three long walls are provided for large pieces of furniture.

The second bedroom is 11'x9' 6" and with its long unbroken wall space would be ideal for the installation of bunks. Double windows provide ample light and ventilation for this room and the large-sized closet could easily serve two youngsters.

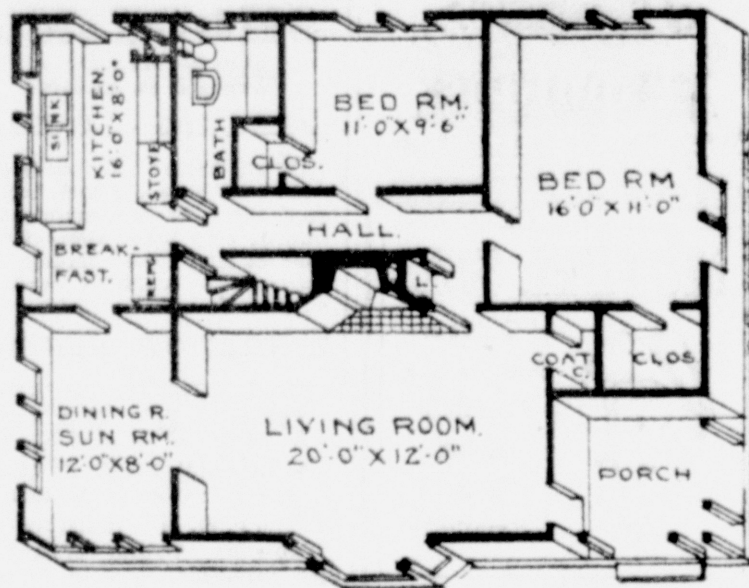

At the end of the hall is the kitchen door; to the right the bathroom door, and to the left, the stairs to the cellar.

The kitchen, 16'x8', is a Pullman type. Immediately to the right of the hall door is the stove and beyond this a long counter space and overhead cupboards that end at the broom closet. On the opposite wall is additional counter space and cupboards; the sink is in the middle beneath the double windows. Between the work counters in the back wall is the kitchen door.

To the left of the hall door, next to the swinging door into the dining room, is the refrigerator. The breakfast nook is located in the opposite corner and is well-lighted by the side window.

In the full cellar the laundry should be placed beneath the kitchen and bathroom, with the heating system under the fireplace. This will leave plenty of cellar space for the home owner to partition off to suit his own purposes.

Complete plans and specifications for "The Putnam," and other houses in this series, are available at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents write to the Home Building Editor, The Gettysburg Times, Dept. 18, Gettysburg, Pa., and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

FILLING HOLES IN WOOD

When installing handles and latches on doors or windows, it may be discovered that there are old screw holes or nail holes that should be filled. A practical method is to fill them with wood putty or plastic wood which, when dry, may be covered with a finish to match the adjacent woodwork.

BANISH DUST FIRST

Before painting is started in a room, careful dusting is highly important. It should be done immediately before painting starts. Work should be done from the top of the room downward.

STORAGE CABINETS

When a home lacks adequate closet space or storage facilities, the problem often can be solved by using home-made cabinets for storage. Such cabinets can be constructed easily by covering simple framework with insulating board.

MAKE WINDOWS SLIDE

Thorough waxing of window sash grooves with beeswax usually assures easy sliding of sash.

STATE JOBS OPEN

April 7 will be the final day to submit State Civil Service Commission applications for two top-level positions in the Rural Child Welfare Division. The SCSC at Harrisburg pointed out today that there will be no written examination for the Welfare department posts of Advanced Psychologist at $8,500 a year and Psychotherapist at $4,176 annually. Applicants will be rated solely on the basis of education and experience.

Decoration Can Start With Floor

Traditional, Provincial, Contemporary—formal or informal—whatever the style of the home, the right floor covering will make it a pleasant place to live. The floor covering can often serve as a foundation for the entire decorative scheme of a room as well as change the apparent proportions and size.

One of the problems confronting the rug buyer is whether to have wall-to-wall carpeting, a room-size rug or scatter rugs.

For the family that moves from time to time, a room-size rug or scatter rugs are advisable. Wall-to-wall carpeting is ideal for the permanent home owner as it not only makes the rooms appear larger and warmer but also can be made to fit irregularities such as joists in the walls and bay windows so that they will appear to be an integral part of the room.

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, will get a hero's acclaim in celebrations throughout the nation's soft coal fields Saturday. April 1 is a traditional miners' holiday. It began years ago as John Mitchell Day, in honor of the old-time UMW president who won the eight-hour day. Gradually the observance merged with a fete in tribute to Lewis. Now, it's almost all Lewis' show.

Cape May, N. J., March 29 (AP)—The Coast Guard reported Tuesday that two ships collided in Delaware Bay, damaging both of them.

Radio messages to the Coast Guard station here identified the ships as the Norwegian freighter Brant County and the American tanker Gulf Moon.

The recently coined word "simulcast" means that a program is broadcast on radio and television at the same time or simultaneously.

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—There was no place else with grass where we could play.

That's why the boys said they climbed a 10-foot wire fence into a Duquesne Light company substation lot in the west end.

Henry Leonhiser, 10, more daring than his pals, climbed 20 feet up on a steel framework supporting high tension cables.

Henry slipped, grasped an 11,000-volt live wire and fell back on a steel beam. There was a blinding flash. Henry was flung out and down in a shower of sparks.

"He's dead!" cried the boys and scrambled over the fence for home. Jimmy Connors, 13, stopped. He went back and beat out sparks in Henry's clothing. Then he lay down, cupped his mouth to his playmate's

BUILDING HAS OWN JARGON

The construction industry has a jargon all of its own, and it is necessary for the layman who is planning to build or remodel to understand this language. Some of the most-used terms follow:

Backfill—Replacement of earth in a trench or against a structure.

Bearing Wall—Wall which supports any load in addition to its own weight.

Coping—Cap at top of wall to shed water.

Dry Wall Construction—Interior wall finish in material other than plaster.

Dormer—An internal recess, the framing of which projects from a sloping roof.

Facade—The face of a building.

Fire-Barrier—Solid gypsum or wood block, or mineral wool insulation, between studs to prevent rapid spread of fire through hollow walls.

Flue—Space in chimney through which smoke and fumes ascend.

Framing Members—Studs, joists, sills, columns, headers, and rafters.

Furring—Strips of wood or metal applied to a wall.

Gable—End walls between the slopes of a roof.

Header—Beam placed at right angles to joists or studs to provide for chimney, window, door or other opening.

Joists—Parallel beams used to support floors and ceiling and in turn supported by larger beams or bearing walls.

Lintel—Horizontal beam supporting the load over a door or window.

Millwork—Finished wood portions of a building such as doors, windows, doorframes, usually assembled away from the site.

Mullion—Slender bar dividing units of windows, screens or similar frames.

Pier—Column of masonry supporting other structural members.

Pointing—Filling joints in masonry with mortar under tool pressure for appearance or protection from the elements.

Sill—Large beam resting horizontally on the foundation to which uprights of the frame are fastened.

Stud—Vertical wood or metal, usually 2 by 4 inches, supporting

Capt. Thomas G. Archibald, 34, (above) Union Springs, Ala., pilot, was killed in the crash of a U.S. embassy plane near Ottawa, Ont. U.S. Ambassador to Canada Laurence Steinhardt was one of four others who died in the accident. (AP Wirephoto.)

FARM CALENDAR

New Insect Killer—Many vegetable gardeners will use a new insecticide for the first time this year. It is methoxychlor, a close relative of DDT, but far less poisonous. J. O. Pepper, extension entomologist of the Pennsylvania State college, explains that the new insecticide does not injure foliage or stunt growth of plants.

Protect Machinery—If you protect your machinery, you may be protecting your life. Penn State agricultural engineers say that many accidents are caused each year by machinery that has not been kept in good condition. All machinery and even hand tools should be thoroughly lubricated and make-shift repairs avoided.

Save the Lambs—The average farmer produces to market age about 86 lambs for every 100 ewes. W. B. Connell, extension livestock specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, reports that well managed flocks have 115 lambs from 100 ewes. Through better care farmers can save more lambs and increase their profits.

Beautify Grounds—Throughout the country the "Plant America" program is gaining momentum, according to A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State extension ornamental horticulturist. He believes that every person can aid in this program to improve the landscape.

Test the Water—If you are thinking of buying a water softener, take the suggestion of C. G. Burrell, Penn State extension agricultural engineer, and have the water tested before you buy a softener. Some dealers take a sample and send it to the manufacturer for analysis.

Provide Power—When a storm or some other cause cuts off the electric power, fortunate is the dairyman who has provided a source of emergency power to do the milking, reminds Ivan Parkin, Penn State extension dairy specialist.

Grow Clean Plants—Many destructive vegetable diseases may be avoided by growing seedlings in soil free from disease-causing organisms. A. H. Bauer, extension pathologist of the Pennsylvania State College, says one way is to use clean soil and the other way is to treat the soil with formaldehyde two weeks before using it.

Provide More Space—Since young chicks occupy more space and eat more feed as they grow, many poultrymen supply at least three sizes of feeding equipment, reports F. H. Leuschner, extension poultry specialist of the Pennsylvania State College.

A radically new idea in electric range design has been introduced by Frigidaire in this compact, 30-inch "Thrifty-30" model equipped with a giant oven that stretches clear across the porcelain-finished cabinet. The big oven will bake six pies or 10 loaves of bread at once, and is heavily insulated for most economical operation. In addition, this smartly-styled range is equipped with four new "flat-top" cooking units, a waist-high broiler and automatic oven controls, cooking lamp, appliance outlet and super-size utensil drawer.

Your Budget, too, says "WELCOME, SPRING!"

How about it—got that "new-car" fever?

Got a hankering to take hold of a brand-new wheel—touch off the power in a smooth, firm, lively new engine—set out to meet spring in fresh new styling and sparkling colors?

Got a suppressed desire to make it really something good this time—and step away in a Fireballing new Buick, with all its room and comfort and stand-out styling?

Well—why not?

You know there's no better buy you can make—and no wider choice than you're going to find among Buick's array of beauties for 1950.

You know there's no livelier action—no smoother ride—no roomier comfort for the money than you'll find right here.

And if you don't know it—we'd like to repeat this:

If you can afford a new car, you can afford a 1950 Buick.

The SPECIAL's prices start just above the lowest bracket. You can choose between thrifty standard-finish models—and de luxe versions a bit richer in trim and outside finish.

You can have a Coupe, two-door or four-door models—sleek-lined jetbacks or tourbacks with roomy luggage compartments.

You can dress them up, if you like, with a long list of added equipment—including 1950 Dynaflo Drive® for instance—or hold the list down to the essentials everyone wants.

And your budget is going to find continuing reason to be content that you blossomed out in a Buick.

For in the hands of owners, the SPECIAL is proving thrifty to run as well as thrifty to buy—and what more could you ask?

Which suggests—why not see your Buick dealer now and ask him the exact details and prices, trade-ins, delivery and terms?

QUESTION ON IMMUNITY IS BEING RAISED

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, March 29 (AP)—Senator McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, has pinned the label "communist" or "pro-communist" on a number of people.

Some of them already have bitterly denied his accusations. And some have told of threats against their lives by angry people who believed McCarthy's charges.

This question may have occurred to you: "If McCarthy's charges turn out to be untrue, can't these accused people sue him for damages? Or can a member of Congress say anything he pleases about anyone and get away with it?"

Enjoys Immunity

McCarthy can't be sued for anything he says about these people so long as he says it on the floor of Congress or before the subcommittee investigating his charges.

That's because he's protected by a thing called "congressional immunity." Every member of Congress is protected by that immunity. Which means:

No member of Congress can be jailed or sued for anything he says about anyone so long as he says it on the floor of either House or Senate or before a committee of Congress.

This immunity from suit or punishment of members of Congress is written into the Constitution. The idea behind that is this: To give members of Congress the greatest possible freedom in debating public questions or taking part in congressional hearings or investigations.

Challenge Issued

But if McCarthy made the same charge outside Congress—say in a talk on the radio—he could be sued. McCarthy told the Senate last February 20 that he would not hide behind congressional immunity.

McCarthy has made no charges—with one notable exception to be explained in a moment—where he was not clearly protected by congressional immunity.

And yesterday Haldore Hanson of the State Department—McCarthy said Hanson wants to "communize the world"—challenged McCarthy to make the same accusation in some place where he can't protect himself from a damage suit by congressional immunity.

Now it remains to be seen whether McCarthy will accept Hanson's challenge.

The one notable exception mentioned above—that is, the one instance where there's a question whether McCarthy was protected by congressional immunity—came about this way:

In his office—not on the floor of the Senate and not before a committee—he told newsmen that one individual connected with the State Department was the "top Soviet espionage agent in the United States." And—he told the newsmen the man's name.

Not Necessarily So

Subsequently, this man's name was released in the public press. Then a law firm, consulted by the accused man's wife, made public a letter which it sent to McCarthy. The letter said:

The firm was giving McCarthy a chance to retract his charges but it added that, as a matter of law, retraction wouldn't save him from a court suit if the accused man wishes to take action against him.

It might seem from what's been said here that a member of Congress has no immunity if he speaks off the floor of Congress or outside a committee. That's not necessarily so.

A court might rule that anything a member of Congress says while inside the walls of Congress—and a congressman's office is inside the walls—carries immunity with it.

Abbottstown

Abbottstown—Betsy Hollinger, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hollinger, is suffering with an infection of the foot. She is reported slightly improved.

Robert Pelly and Henry K. Landis, Sr., were both hospital patients last week. Both are improving.

Bernard Evans, who resides at the Abbottstown hotel, was admitted to the Hanover hospital Friday for an emergency operation.

Earl Swope, Hamilton township, suffered a painful injury to his eye

New Oxford

New Oxford — Mr. and Mrs. G. Mervin Spangler had as guests recently for several days at their home their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Harry Rowland and Susan Rowland, Kingston, N. Y.

A motion picture in natural color, "Desert Symphony," was shown at the Sunday school session on March 26 at St. Paul's Reformed church.

A Father and Son banquet was featured during the past week at the meeting of the local Lions Club at the Cross Keys Hotel east of town where members of the club brought their sons or "sons" adopted for the occasion.

The Intermediate Group of the local Girl Scouts are continuing their cooking project and met Monday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Aaron Pressel, for waffle-making. The girls recently made cookies which they packed in gift packages and presented to "shut-ins" throughout this area. Rosalie Jane Klunk, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Klunk, is the president of the group.

Mrs. N. Ling, who marked her 85th birthday in the autumn, has recovered from a long and serious illness.

The Rev. Norman Bortner, who recently came to York Springs to assume the pastorate of its Lutheran charge, will be guest speaker this evening at a Lenten service at The Pines Lutheran church, New Chester, of which the pastor is the Rev. Samuel M. Clarke.

The Paul E. Moul family, who have lived here for some time, moved recently and are now making their home near Abbottstown. The James and Ralph Costella families, formerly of near town, have moved to the house on West High street by the Moul's removal.

Pittsburgh, March 29 (AP)—The national commander of the Disabled American Veterans says the Hoover commission wants the government to economize at the expense of disabled veterans.

The commander, David M. Brown, said in a talk last night the American people oppose legislation "to weaken the present disabled veterans' program in the false name of economy."
